

A Service of Thanksgiving and Celebration

Janet May Beagley
'Jan'

26th March 1938 - 7th May 2026

Monday 22nd June 2026

at 12.00 noon

United Reformed Church, Hinckley

A scenic view of a canal. In the foreground, a red narrowboat with white trim and three portholes is moored on the left. The canal water reflects the surrounding greenery. In the middle ground, a stone bridge with a single arch spans the canal. The background features a grassy hill with several trees and a small house with a red roof on the right. The sky is bright and slightly hazy.

Order of Service

WELCOME

HYMN

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide!
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou who changest not, abide with me.

I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies:
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me!

Henry Francis Lyte (1793-1847)

BIBLE READING

John, Chapter 3: verses 16-17

EARLY LIFE IN LONDON AND BIRMINGHAM

by Julie

A narrowboat is shown on a canal, moving towards the left. The boat has a dark green hull, a red upper section with a white oval porthole, and a white cabin with a blue roof. A large, dark, knobby fender is attached to the bow. The background features a wide, flat, golden-brown field under a pale sky, with a line of trees in the distance.

TRIBUTE FROM THE FRIENDS AT THE CHURCH

by Christine

HYMN

Love divine, all loves excelling,
Joy of heaven, to earth come down,
Fix in us Thy humble dwelling,
All Thy faithful mercies crown.
Jesu, Thou art all compassion,
Pure unbounded love Thou art;
Visit us with Thy salvation,
Enter every trembling heart.

Come, almighty to deliver,
Let us all Thy grace receive;
Suddenly return, and never,
Never more Thy temples leave.
Thee we would be always blessing,
Serve Thee as Thy hosts above;
Pray, and praise Thee, without ceasing,
Glory in Thy perfect love.

Finish then Thy new creation:
Pure and spotless let us be;
Let us see Thy great salvation,
Perfectly restored in Thee;
Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heaven we take our place,
Till we cast our crowns before Thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

Charles Wesley (1707-1788)

A narrowboat is shown from a side-on perspective, moving along a canal. The boat has a dark green hull with a prominent red stripe and a white section at the bow. It features a small cabin with a blue canvas cover and a red door. A large, dark, rounded object, possibly a lifebuoy or a piece of equipment, is attached to the bow. The background consists of a rolling landscape with green fields, a line of trees, and a clear sky. The word "BENEDICTION" is printed in a serif font across the middle of the image.
